FIRE AND EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Come Back Stronger, Ready to Move Your Career Forward

Protecting society is more than a career — it's a calling. And this is your time to answer the call. Environmental disasters, terrorism, espionage — threats like these make headlines every day, and they demand dedicated professionals skilled enough to manage them. Our program equips you to do just that. Prepare for leadership roles managing modern fire, EMS, and emergency preparedness agencies, or to take on new and emerging opportunities in areas such as human resources, technology, and fiscal responsibility.

The degree program is closely based on the Fire and Emergency Services Higher Education (FESHE) curriculum model and is accredited by the International Fire Service Accreditation Congress (IFSAC).

Take The Next Step in Your Career and Your Education

Prepare for Leadership Opportunities

The general public and government appointees are demanding higher levels of training and education for those who lead our nation's first response teams during catastrophic disasters, terrorist incidents, and typical emergencies. Prepare to meet this demand.

Get a Head Start on Your Master's Degree

Complete your master's degree sooner with a graduate program pathway. It weaves graduate-level courses into your bachelor's program, giving you a jump on your master's degree requirements. You'll save on time and tuition compared with finishing both programs separately.

Plus, your degrees don't have to be in the same fields. You can customize your academic journey to support your career goals and interests. To learn more, view the University Catalog or connect with an Advisor.⁵

Curriculum

The career-focused curriculum is designed for emergency services personnel who want to increase their administrative and management knowledge. The courses are reviewed and revised continually by industry experts to ensure they reflect the most recent developments in the field.

Course Topics Include:

- Preparedness and planning
- Crisis management in terrorist attacks and disasters
- Community risk reduction
- Recovery practices
- Fire prevention, organization, and management
- Political, ethical, and legal foundations of emergency services
- Leadership and management
- Personnel and human resources management
- Mitigation and risk assessment
- Disaster policy

Business Foundations Concentration

- Gain competencies in the fundamental concepts of business administration. Develop an understanding of the four functions of management, the components of a marketing strategy, and the financial performance of an organization.

Capstone Project

A final, hands-on capstone allows you to build your resume, gain real-world skills, and put your knowledge into action.

1 Purdue Global does not guarantee transferability of credit. See the University Catalog for Prior Learning policy.

2 May not be combined with other Purdue Global tuition reductions or ExcelTrack™ pricing. Tuition rates are subject to change at Purdue Global's discretion at any time and, as a result, the tuition price may change.

3 Students who inform Purdue Global they do not wish to pursue the program during the 3-week trial will not be charged. Students who choose to continue at Purdue Global will be billed for the full first term's tuition, including the 3-week trial, and will need to meet other specific requirements. Classes will be applied toward a degree if satisfactorily completed and students select to continue their studies at Purdue Global. No credits are earned if the student withdraws during the introductory period (3 weeks for new qualifying undergraduate students), which begins day one of the first term. Graduate programs and BS in Professional Flight not included. Additional terms may apply to international and non-U.S. citizen students. For further information, see the University Catalog.

5 Estimated graduation date is based on the assumption that you will enroll in time to begin classes on the next upcoming start date, will remain enrolled for each consecutive term, and will maintain satisfactory academic standing in each term to progress toward completion of your program. Completion time is based on a full-time schedule. Programs will take longer for part-time students to complete.

To start a Graduate Program Pathway, students should consult with their Student Advisor to confirm eligibility. Not all Graduate Program Pathways are available on all tracks, and some may require students to meet academic standards to continue taking graduate courses in their bachelor's degree program. Visit the University Catalog for more information.
